

The Center for Women's Studies & Gender Research invite nominations for the

2014 Karen J. Wedge Award

Karen Wedge served as the Director of Women's Programs and Studies at Colorado State University for 30 years. During her tenure she worked with and mentored hundreds of students around gender and multicultural issues. Karen supervised dozens of graduate students in the Master's program in Student Affairs in Higher Education and served on a multitude of committees including Honors, Master's and Ph.D. in other disciplines at the university. In addition, she was one of the key players in the formation of the Victim Assistance Team for victims of interpersonal violence, as well as the Women's Interdisciplinary Studies Program in which she developed and taught the Introduction to Women's Studies Course and co-taught the undergraduate and graduate seminars.

The Center for Women's Studies & Gender Research Board seeks to recognize an Outstanding Women's Studies Alumna/Alumnus who:

- a) Serves as a role model by demonstrating commitment to social justice
- b) Combines academic and activist feminism as a vehicle of social change.

Please consider nominating alumni who meet the above criteria. The nomination packet must include the following:

- a) A completed nomination form
- b) A statement by the nominator that describes the reasons for nominating this individual as one who exemplifies the criteria set forth above (1000 word maximum)
- c) Two (2) additional supporting statements written by individuals who can attest to the contributions of the nominee (500 word maximum each)
- d) A current resume, curriculum vita, or similar document for the nominee

The nomination deadline is March 15, 2014.

Please forward nominations to: The Center for Women's Studies & Gender Research, 357 Aylesworth SE, Fort Collins, CO 80523-1790, or to cwsgr@colostate.edu.
