

SOCIAL JUSTICE THRU THE ARTS

Alliance Partnership Mission:
Encourages and supports students to pursue and obtain a college education.

The Alliance Partnership is looking for a number of CSU students to assist as mentors with our 2018 summer institutes (listed below.) Being a mentor is a great way to gain experience working with high school students, share your personal college experience, learn more about yourself and earn some money.

You must be available for training on Tuesday, May 15, 2018 9am – 4pm

2018 Social Justice through Arts

June 17- June 22: 2 mentor positions available

Mentors will:

- Support and encourage participants to manage their own learning in order to maximize their potential, develop their skills, and improve their performance.
- Escort participants to dining hall and all institute sessions, ensuring the group is following the timeliness of the schedule.
- Co-reside in residence halls, providing experiential evening activities
- Ask questions and challenge with support while providing guidance and encouragement

- Please complete the attached Alliance Mentor Statement of Interest and submit to:
